

USFA SC Division Listserv Policies as of 10/14/2011

- Only current SC Division officers and EC members may be Listserv moderators.
- Anyone can send emails to the Listserv, but all messages will be quarantined until approved by a moderator.
- The Listserv is intended as a means of public communication for SC Division Clubs and Fencers, but can be used by neighboring divisions.

The following messages are permitted to be sent via the SC Division Listserv:

- The announcement of SC Division news, such as division meetings and changes in the division officer roster.
- The announcement of sanctioned tournaments hosted by the SC Division or by SC Division Clubs, or by clubs in neighboring divisions.
- The announcement of events hosted by the Southeast Section, such as Section Qualifiers.
- The announcement of RYC and ROC events to be held within the Southeast Section.
- The announcement of National and NAC events, and material related to these events (such as reminders for registration deadlines).
- The announcement of unsanctioned tournaments, when the unsanctioned event is held in conjunction with a sanctioned event, and the announcement is sent as part of the announcement for the sanctioned event.
- The announcement of the presence of a vendor at an event, when included as a line item in the announcement of the event. For example the line "Vendor X will be present" may be included in an event announcement, as long as it does not include a graphic element and cannot be construed as advertisement for the vendor.
- The announcement of workshops and clinics such as armory clinics, referee clinics, and coaching clinics, which are open to the public.
- The announcement of camps which are open to the public.
- The announcement of event cancellations.
- Announcements are permitted (but not required) one graphical element, which must be a club, division, or event logo.
- Links to websites related to the topic of the message, such as a link to askfred.net, usfencing.org, or scfencing.org.
- Other announcements or news not listed here but deemed fit for public consumption by a SC Division Officer.

The following are not permitted to be distributed via the SC Division Listserv:

- The announcement of events or clinics which are not open to the public.
- The announcement of tournament results.
- The advertisement or inclusion of advertisement of companies, vendors, products, and services.
- The announcement of club schedules, such as practice or class times.
- The inclusion of more than one graphical element.
- The inclusion of links to inappropriate sites or non fencing sites.
- The inclusion of non-fencing related material.
- Inflammatory material.
- Replies to messages sent via the Listserv.
- Inflammatory material.

Other policies for the SC Division Listserv:

- Emails must have a pertinent subject line.
- Contact a moderator to have your message distributed.
